JANAL PIXAN

THE RETURN OF THE SOULS AT CHABLÉ YUCATÁN

OCTOBER 30 & 31, 2026

AGENDA

In Mexico, tradition speaks not of absence but of reunion. Candles light invisible paths, marigolds hold the fragrance of memory, and every gesture becomes a way of honoring those who continue to walk with us from another realm.

At Chablé Yucatán, these days unfold as a shared ceremony where the beauty of our roots reveals that the bond with the soul never fades.

LIGHTS OF THE ANCESTORS

janal Pixan begins at the cenote with an intimate ritual where each candle becomes a light of remembrance.
The stillness of the water and the glow
of light invite us to speak from the heart
in honor of those who have passed,
yet remain alive within our hearts.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30
CENOTE — 6:00 P.M.

---

JARANA NIGHT

The culinary richness of Yucatán and one of its most cherished cultural expressions come together in this special evening.
To the rhythm of the Jarana, dancers in traditional attire celebrate the occasion with a vibrant performance filled with color and joy.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30

FEAST OF THE SOULS

At dawn, the keepers of Yucateca culinary heritage prepare an ancestral dish, buried beneath the earth and cooked with patience. Hours later, its aroma rises, summoning everyone back to the table to gather in memory and celebration.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31
MAYA KITCHEN
Preparation and burial — 10:00 A.M.
Unearthing and tasting — 3:00 P.M.

FACES OF TRADITION

Brushstrokes and colors turn faces into living art, celebrating the spirit of Día de Muertos. Out of each design emerges the graceful smile of the catrina, a figure that reminds us death can be met with beauty and joy.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31
MAIN HOUSE DINING ROOM
— 3:00 P.M. - 5:00 P.M.

JANAL PIXAN PROCESSION

At sunset, the path lights up to guide the Pixan, the soul in Maya tradition, back to its place of rest. This procession honors a spiritual legacy that recognizes the eternal presence of those we love.

WHITE ARCH PATH
TO MAYA CASITAS — 6:00 P.M.

ALTARS & PRAYER

Flowers, candles, scents, and flavors trace a path that honors the memory of those who once walked among us. Each altar holds stories, affection, and gratitude in a contemplative experience that invites us to pause and reflect.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31
LANTERN TREE — 6:30 P.M.

GUARDIANS OF MEMORY

Inspired by the artistic legacy of José Guadalupe Posada, this exhibition showcases different interpretations of the iconic catrinas. Each piece reveals the beauty and symbolism that have made these figures an inseparable presence in Day of the Dead celebrations.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31
MAIN GARDEN — 7:00 P.M.

CATRINA PARADE

Amid lights that brighten the night, catrinas move forward with elegance. Their presence surrounds us in a procession that celebrates collective memory and the timeless beauty of tradition.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31
FIREFLY GARDEN — 7:30 P.M.
