8. Chablé, Merida.

Built inside of an old henequen factory, Chablé is a world-class hotel in the Yucatan, located next to the city of Merida. The Yucatan is officially Mexico's safest region, and Merida, in particular, one of the safest cities for living (families welcome!) in the Americas.

Chablé is a kingdom of pure and utter relaxation. Each room is connected to a luxurious pool. And adorned with handmade hammocks and other artisanal décor details. Here, you can also experience the preparation of the local delicacy, cochinita pibil, and watch chefs cook it in the ground (to be eaten later in a taco).
