DESTINATION: Located in southern Mexico, Yucatan is brimming with natural wealth, with vast labyrinths of caves and nearly 3,000 sparkling limestone cenotes, lush jungle, and archaeological sites.

RESIDENCE: Designed by Jose Carlos Lombana, this five-bedroom, 24,667-square-foot residence features a bar and library, state-of-the-art kitchen, and an open-concept dining and living room overlooking the private swimming pool, jacuzzi, and lounge area. Outdoors, a personal ka'anche (traditional Mayan garden) can be customized with owner-selected fruits and vegetables. Additional highlights include a four-story observatory tower with a cinema, personal gym, private spa cabin, powder room, and rooftop observatory.

TO DO: Owners have access to the resort, including a world-renowned spa, restaurants with menus curated by chef Jorge Vallejo, golf course, fitness center, tennis courts, pool, and kids club.

INQUIRIES: $9 million; Al Kairis
